

SOFT SKILL DEVELOPMENT

Module on communication skills.

Report - It is observed that formal training given on basic soft skills or communication skills (CS) during medical undergraduate years can help to develop better doctor patient relationship throughout the clinical practice. Developing communication skills was felt as a need through formal training as well as in assessment, hence Maharashtra University of Health Sciences, India, incorporated it in curriculum.

This module is designed to train third year BDS students for communication skills.

Third year BDS students are sensitized for communication skills through a module. The module is divided into four important aspects; 1) Components and barriers of effective CS while dealing with patients, 2) Training for effective communication viva voce examination, 3) communicating effectively with different types of patients, 4) Improve Prescription writing as communication skill.

Language and communication skill

Language & Communication Skill Development Scheme

The institute has taken an informal language & communication skill development initiative for the first year students who are freshly admitted in college. The first year students are informed about the programme in the institute so that they can avail the benefit of the facility for improving their skills. This guidance is useful to students who have had their schooling in regional languages as the curriculum is in English language and are not comfortable while communicating in English language. Any of the students who need help regarding the same are guided accordingly by the faculty appointed for the same Dr Varsha Uttarwar & Dr Neena Dongre.

The students can take guidance from the above staff anytime according to their convenience. Students are encouraged to communicate in English language with their peers ,colleagues & with the staff so as to boost their confidence levels. This is necessary as they have to face their viva-voce during university and internal assessment practical exams, where marks are also allotted for communication skills.

Students are advised to use the dictionaries available in library for translation from Marathi & Hindi languages to English. Students are also informed about the various mobile apps available online which can be used for development of language & communication skills. Students are motivated to participate and carry out presentations in various college level, local, state and national scientific events to emphasize on them the need of proper communication skills. This skill is also discussed during the orientation programmes and mentor-mentee interactions. A number of students have benefitted from this initiative undertaken by the institution.

International Yoga Day Celebration

International Yoga Day is going to be celebrated on 21st June 2017. As per the letter from MUHS, International Yoga Day has to be celebrated in collaboration with Janardan Swami, Physio Medical, Nagpur. Accordingly, the venue of mass yoga session has been shifted to Yashwant stadium between 6.00AM to 8.00AM on 21/Jun/2017.

Hence the mass yoga session in Matoshree Hall at NKPSIMS stands cancelled.

All HODs are hereby directed to send a list of 4 staff members (Teaching & Non-teaching) to the Department of Physiology by 19th June who will attend the morning mass yoga session at Yashwant Stadium, so that three hours relaxation can be given to them while reporting to their regular duty on 21st June.

The other competitions i.e. poster, slogan and essay competitions will be held as per schedule. We invite entries for the poster, slogan & essay competition.

Prize distribution ceremony for these competitions will be held on 20th June 2017 at Harmony Hall, Department of Physiology at 11.00 AM

Analytical Skill Development

Programme on Analytical Skill Development

Target audience: Interns

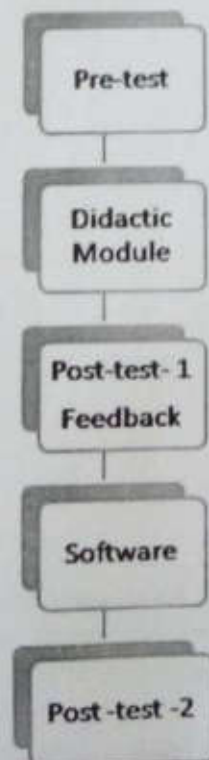

Mode of Teaching: Technology enhanced learning/ Blended learning

Faculty: Dr Saeed Deshpande, Dr Jaishree Chahande, Dr Akhil Rathi, Dr Deepti Lambade

Structure of this programme/module is as follows:

1. Didactic lectures on the concept of clinical decision-making, a general protocol to be followed in decision-making process and its importance in prosthodontic practice
2. Group activities related to different ways of decision-making.
3. Design of software.

The cases included completely and partially edentulous patients requiring prosthodontic rehabilitation using tooth and/or implant supported removable and/or fixed prostheses. Cases with acquired maxillary and mandibular defects were also included. A special emphasis was given to select cases, which required preprosthetic treatments by endodontics, periodontal therapy, surgery and other specialties also. The intent was to train the students to make an interdisciplinary clinical decision and correct sequencing of the treatment.

negative. Various breathing and meditating techniques were taught which included 'Breathing out anger' which helped in and applied for anger management.

Day IV-3rd April 2018

Module IV- Compassion :-

The session started by an open discussion between the participants and Dr. Manas Sarma wherein they shared their understanding regarding the word "Compassion". Various new perspectives were brought into light during this discussion. The participants were asked to see the personality from their life which they thought was very compassionate and what qualities they reflect. After brief meditation sessions the day/session was concluded by a partner activity where the participants were paired and experienced giving and taking compassion also by jotting down messages and words of appreciation- "Without spoiler".

Day V-4th April 2018

Module V- Co-operation :-

Being in a profession where togetherness forms a stepping stone in success, the participants were asked about an incidence where in they observed/experienced an act of "Cooperation". The participants were asked to meditate where they were asked to imagine the incidence and seek in the qualities and values which made cooperation so obvious. "Stepping stone" was the activity along with "Detangling the knot" were carried out through which the participants depicted the quality and got lesson and experience as to how cooperation can be so effortless.

Day VI-9th April 2018

Module VI - Valuing Yourself :-

The necessity of valuing yourselves and appreciating yourselves was made understand. Therein an activity was introduced with a worksheet, where they worked in pairs and shared the different techniques to value, celebrate and enjoy the environment. Meditation session was organized on valuing yourself. Lastly a group activity was held which was named as 'Web of Good Wishes' where a thread (woolen) was passed to every individual and a web was formed. During the process of passing every participant wished for a good will to another individual and the session was concluded.

Day VII-10th April 2018

Module VII Resilience :-

In this session a life incident was made to be recollected and the feeling was made to be observed. Further they were discussed in larger groups.

Next was an activity was conducted where a group of five was made and arts and crafts material was distributed. Four such groups were made and a resilient story was depicted on a chart paper.

Feedback:

- It was so fantastic life changing experience got to learn many new things in a different ways know about myself..... Through new perspectives.
- It was an amazing experience got to known ourselves & other through different ways.
- I got to explore myself. I joined all the activities & have learned the values & trying to implement in day-to-day life and will be helpful for all of us surely. Hoping for the more "VIHASA" sessions. Thank you!
- It was wonderful experience and life changing; we got to know what we are better at & what all. One the things, we need to work on every experience coming across in life would be taken positively here after. Thank you for such a wonderful program.
- It was different, innovative, incredible session. We got to learn perspectives, opinions and it was amazing.
- "Mesmerizing" it was, pure to heart. It has given me a new hope, a new perspective to see things. I think I would have done this earlier! Thanks.
- It was a whole new experience that has made lifetime changes. I am very thankful to the whole "VIHASA" team for organizing. The best part of it was that we got connected!!
- Wonderful experience. life changing experience, learn about how to cope with every situation whether good or bad.
- I have attended less sessions but it was a nice experience for me & I have started implementing all their values in my life.
- It changed me through and through..... life is more than what we think about and deep down values are within us, we just need to EVOLVE out of our so called comfort zone of personality. Thank you VIHASA to be in my life and hence change me as WELL!
- Helped us know ourselves better.
- It was valuable session.
- The session taught me various things. The changes come in my life that made my life valuable.
- It was innovative, life changing experience. It should be held annually so that it could be useful for all.
- It was motivational, I really learned new things.

Personality and Professional Development Scheme

The actual purpose of the education is to prepare students with the potential to meet challenges in life. The Dental Council of India is also emphasizing to produce more proficient and skilled Dental professionals. Becoming a good dentist not only need acquiring dental knowledge and mastering clinical skills but also learning professional attitude, emotional stability, and interpersonal as well as communication skills.

Keeping this in mind, we are trying to equip our students not only with professional skills but also with non cognitive skills.

And these programs are definitely helping students to improve the overall personality.
