International Kid's Yoga Day is a global event which was first started last year by Ms. Teresa Power, author of a famous book – ABC of yoga for kids. More than 45 countries and 45,000 children perform yoga on the same day and same time. One of the centres to participate in this global event was Department of Pediatric and Preventive Dentistry, VSPM Dental College and Research Centre, Nagpur on 5th April 2019. This was the third time kids yoga day was celebrated by the department. Powered packed yoga session was conducted by the PGs and the staff members of the department for children. The importance of including simple yoga postures for overall health of child was emphasized and parents were trained for the same. The staff and PG students of the department worked hard for the program

WORLD ORAL HEALTH DAY 2019

'SAY AHH: ACT ON MOUTH HEALTH'

World Oral Health Day is observed annually on 20 March, dedicated to raising global awareness of the issues around oral health and the importance of oral hygiene. The theme for 2019 was ACT ON MOUTH HEALTH. On this occasion, various events were conducted by the department of Pediatric and Preventive Dentistry, V.S.P.M dental college and research centre which included a skit performances (nukkad natak) on the importance of oral hygiene in children and motivational lecture for expectant mothers regarding infant oral health care.

Nukkad natak was performed by the PG students and interns posted in the department, for awareness of oral health in children at NIT garden at Swawalambi nagar, Nagpur. Children and their parents assembled in the garden witnessed nukkad natak, in which the importance of primary teeth and maintenance of oral hygiene was explained to them in an interesting way.

The PG students visited gynaecologists of Nagpur city and evaluated the knowledge and attitude of the expectant mothers about infant oral health care. Through a 10 mins power point presentation, these mothers were educated and motivated to maintain good oral hygiene themselves and key health tips for better oral hygiene of infants were explained to them.

REPORT OF IMA INTERCOLLEGIATE DANCE COMPETITION REPORT
FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2018-2019

Every year Indian Medical Association organizes Inter collegiate Dance competition on 26th January to celebrate Republic day within Vidarbh level. The theme is always folk dances of India .Around 8-10 team from various Medical colleges at vidarbh level participate in the competition.Totalparticipants are 15-20 students . The IMA works with the objective of generating and articulating the feeling of love devotion and sense of attachment to a homeland (Patriotism)through cultural aspect, also developing the academic and cultural talents of the students, improving their capabilities to work as a team and raising their level of self-confidence in interacting with fellow students and peers

The programme was held on 26th January 2019 in Indian Medical Association hall's J.R.SHAW Auditorium north Ambazari road Nagpur

The students showed a State Folk RAMAYANADance through their performance .The Ramayana is one of the largest ancient epics in world literature.All dancers played different characters and roles of Ramayana with the aid of props, sets and specific costumes, rapidly shifting from woman to man, youth to adult, god to demonwith neon (Fluorescent) colors which appears brightIn dark background. Cultural event was a great success. Everybody enjoyed the cultural function and highly appreciated the organizers . The function revealed many aspects of our culture before the audience.At the end of event winners were announced .Our institute won 2nd CONSOLATION PRIZEfor state folk dance.

VIHASA 2019

The two day programme aimed to ignite the role of values and moral upliftment in the health professionals to refine their personality and skills. First time the workshop was conducted for 20 Volunteer, 3rd BDS students. All the session was conducted by Dr. Surekha Rathod and Dr. Jaishree Chahande on "rekindle dream and values back to work". At the end of the day the participants prepared and presented their posters on values. All the participants were very happy as it enabled them to provide better health care to their patients and benefit the society on a larger scale.

International Yoga Kids Day-The Department of Paediatric Dentistry organized an event on the occasion of 3rd International Kids Yoga Day on Monday 09/04/2018 in the seminar room of Paediatric Dentistry.

International Kid's Yoga Day is a global event which was first started last year by Ms. Teresa Power, author of a famous book – ABC of yoga for kids. More than 45 countries and 45,000 children perform yoga on the same day and same time. One of the centres to participate in this global event was Department of Pediatric and Preventive Dentistry, VSPM Dental College and Research Centre, Nagpur on 7th April 2018.

Oral health is part of general health, to emphasize the importance of daily exercise and meditation, brief session on yoga was conducted for children.

Powered packed yoga session was conducted by the PGs and the staff members of the department. Charts representing easy 5minute yoga poses for the children were distributed. Healthy snacks like fruits and juices were distributed to the delegates

Dr. Devendra Nagpal, Dr.Gagandeep Lamba, Dr.Purva Chaudhari and Dr.Kavita Hotwani with the pg students conducted a successful program

DET unit report on workshop on VIHASA 23-24th February, 2018

The DET unit of VSPM's DCRC, Nagpur had conducted a workshop on "Values in Healthcare: a spiritual approach (VIHASA)" on 23rd - 24th February 2018. The two day programme aimed to ignite the role of values and moral upliftment in the health professionals to refine their personality and skills. The event was inaugurated by the lighting of lamp by Dean Dr. Usha Radke, Dr. Ashok Mehta, Dr. Sachin Parab and Sister Rajani. The guest speakers were felicitated with shawl and shripal by Dr. Usha Radke. She then addressed the audience with warm words. In the first session of day one, Dr. Ashok Mehta threw some light on "values in healthcare" while the second session was lectured by Dr. Sachin Parab on "rekindle dream and values back to work". At the end of the day the participants prepared and presented their posters on values. All the participants were very happy as it enabled them to provide better health care to their patients and benefit the society on a larger scale. The day two began with the lecture by Dr. Sachin Parab on "compassion and compassionate listening" etc. The afternoon session was conducted by Dr. Ashok Mehta on "understanding anger and breathing out anger". Certificates of participation were distributed at the end of the event. A vote of thanks was proposed by Dr. Usha Radke who also congratulated the DET members for a noble initiative that revived energies into their personal lives.

FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2016-2017

Every year Indian Medical Association organizes Inter collegiate Dance competition on 26th January to celebrate Republic day within Vidarbha level. The theme is always folk dances of India. Around 8-10 team from various Medical colleges at vidarbha level participate in the competition. Total participants are 15-20 students. The IMA works with the objective of generating and articulating the feeling of love devotion and sense of attachment to a homeland (Patriotism) through cultural aspect, also developing the academic and cultural talents of the students, improving their capabilities to work as a team and raising their level of self-confidence in interacting with fellow students and peers.

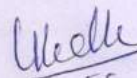

Because of some unavoidable circumstances fest was postponed to the month of March instead of January. It was held on 12th March 2017 at DR.VASANTRAO DESPANDE HALL Civil lines Nagpur.

The students showed a LAVNI through their performance. Lavani is a combination of traditional song and dance within the state of Maharashtra in India. It is noted for its powerful rhythm. In a traditional form students performed with singing and dancing in a group of 20 students to the beats of Dholki, a percussion instrument. It was Choreographed by Choreographer.

Everybody enjoyed the cultural function and highly appreciated the organizers. The function revealed many aspects of our culture before the audience. At the end of event winners were announced. Our institute won PRESIDENT'S CHOICE PRIZE in state folk dance competition.

Report of 'International Day of Older Persons': 1st October 2016

Program by IPS Nagpur branch and Dept. Of Prosthodontics, VSPM DCRC, Nagpur

Indian Prosthodontic Society, And Department of Prosthodontics, VSPM Dental College & Research Centre, Nagpur, had organized an event on 1st October 2016, which is celebrated worldwide as 'International Day of Older Persons'. As per directives of IPS Head Office, Dr Himanshu Aeran, President & Secretary Dr. V. Rangarajan, conveyed that this year, the IPS joined the Global Strategy & Action Plan on Ageing and Health by the WHO, as a commitment of the field of Prosthodontics towards rehabilitation of older persons with complete dentures, improving their quality of life. Noble Cause of the program was: "Take a stand Against Ageism". The aim was to benefit maximum number of patients in the region through this event.

Dr Usha Radke, President of IPS Nagpur branch, Dean & HOD, Dept Of Prosthodontics, VSPM DCRC, conducted the meeting with IPS Nagpur Branch EC members along with Teaching staff, PG Students & Technicians, for organizing 10 days "Free Complete Denture Camp" in the Department. It was decided to deliver Free Complete Dentures to the elderly people. For this, Pamphlets were distributed at different prime locations. Accordingly, Departmental Teaching Staff & Post-Graduate students scheduled the appointments for each & every completely edentulous patients reported to the OPD. Patient's record was maintained in the separate Log book. As per patient's convenience, the impressions of upper and lower jaw & jaw relation procedures were carried out. The try-in of every patient's complete denture was adjusted as per operator's as well as patient's satisfaction. The fabrication procedure of these dentures were done by the Department Technicians, who also worked hard for this camp. For each patient, the dentures were adjusted intra-orally & instructions regarding insertion of dentures, mastication, speech & maintenance were given to them. The dentures were stored properly in sealed boxes & kept ready to deliver on 1st October. During this period many patients had difficulty related to understanding the language, conveyance, few health & family related problems, but the Teaching staff & PG students solved their queries & helped them in all possible ways.

On 1st October, Saturday, the International day of Older People, Dr. Usha Radke welcomed chief Guest Shri. Ranjeetbabu Deshmukh, Chairman, VSPMAHE & Dr A.T. Biviji, Ex-Dean of VSPM DCRC, the Guest of Honor of the event, dignitaries as well as all elderly patients. Dr. Jaya Joshi was the MOC of the program. Dr. Neelam Pande, Professor & EC member of IPS Nagpur, has given introduction about this day. Dr A.T. Biviji, appreciated the arrangement done for so many elderly people & activity conducted by IPS, Nagpur Branch. The free complete dentures were delivered to 60 elderly patients at the hands of Shri. Ranjeetbabu Deshmukh, Chairman, VSPM AHE and Dr AT Biviji. All Patients were very much satisfied with treatment facilities & work culture in the Department of Prosthodontics of VSPM DCRC, at the same time, they shared their wonderful experience, conveyance facilities & help provided by the Institute. Proceedings of all camp days video was displayed during the program. Lastly, Dr. Tushar Mowade proposed the vote of thanks. During the whole 4hrs program, four witness from different organizations were present. They signed the log book during appointment schedule of the patients & also after completion of program of 1October.

REPORT OF IMA INTERCOLLEGIATE DANCE COMPETITION
FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2014-2015

Every year Indian Medical Association organizes Inter collegiate Dance competition on 26th January to celebrate Republic day within Vidarbha level. The theme is always folk dances of India. Around 8-10 team from various Medical colleges at Vidarbha level participate in the competition. We are 15-20 students. The IMA works with the objective of generating and articulating the feeling of love devotion and sense of attachment to a homeland (Patriotism) through cultural aspect, also developing the academic and cultural talents of the students, improving their capabilities to work as a team and raising their level of self-confidence in interacting with fellow students and peers.

The dance fest was held on 26th January 2015 in Indian Medical Association hall's J.R. SHAW Auditorium North Ambazari road Nagpur.

Total 20 students performed a TRADITIONAL BENGALI WEDDING through their dance. The bride and groom and other dancers were dressed in a traditional Bengali way. All the dancers were danced beautifully. It was choreographed by a choreographer. The background was decorated in a traditional Bengali way.

Cultural event was a great success. Everybody enjoyed the cultural function and highly appreciated the organizers. The function revealed many aspects of our culture before the audience. At the end of the event winners were announced. Our institute won PRESIDENT'S CHOICE AWARD for Bengali wedding dance competition.
