Report-

The institution commemorated its twenty-fifth anniversary with a grand celebration held on February 25, 2023, at VSPM's DCRC, Nagpur. This milestone event honored twenty-five years of exemplary service and education in the realm of community health services.

The program was graced by the presence of alumni from the 1996 batch as well as from other cohorts, alongside dignitaries, faculty, and volunteers. The event commenced with an Inaugural Ceremony, followed by Cultural Performances showcasing talents from various batches, along with introductions of each batch and distribution of awards.

During the intermissions, alumni students were treated to a guided tour of the college facilities, including the library, canteen, and gymnasium, which left them captivated. A highlight of the event was the live music band performance, which was specially arranged and greatly enjoyed by all attendees.
