Name of Event: Intercollegiate Debate Competition - SHABD

Date: 1st October 2024

Time: 9:30 am onwards

Venue: Pride Hall

Topic: "Is Financial Compensation for Organ Donors an Ethical and Effective Solution to Fix the Organ Crisis?"

The Intercollegiate Debate Competition, SHABD, was held on the 1st of October, 2024, at Pride Hall, starting at 9:30 am. The event brought together students from various colleges to engage in a thought-provoking discussion on the ethical and practical implications of financial compensation for organ donors. The topic aimed to address whether such a solution could alleviate the global organ shortage while considering ethical boundaries.

The competition was inaugurated by Dr. Abhay Kolte, Dean of Ranjeet Deshmukh Dental College, who emphasized the significance of raising awareness on organ donation through intellectual discourse.

The debate was judged by two esteemed professionals:

Dr. Pallavi Yellarthi

Dr. Dipali Mohite

Participants delivered well-researched arguments, representing both sides of the issue. The competition witnessed compelling points on the balance between incentivizing donors and maintaining ethical standards in healthcare.

The event was efficiently organized under the guidance of the Teacher Incharge, Dr. Kalyani Deshmukh, and Student Incharge, Ms. Dishti Bachar, who ensured the smooth conduct of the competition.

The debate not only provided a platform for students to develop critical thinking but also highlighted the complexities surrounding organ donation policies.
